B-Line | Refined Basics for Economic Office Solutions

B-Line series by Meranti is defined by the concept of Basic—a purposeful and intelligent simplicity created to deliver economic, practical and reliable office solutions. This collection is ideal for environments where budget control, functionality and consistency are essential, without sacrificing quality or visual order. B-Line is developed with a clear focus on organizational and large-scale office needs, offering a wide range of practical models and dimensions for efficient space planning. While its design language remains clean and straightforward, precision in construction, attention to detailing and well-balanced proportions give the series a distinct identity—setting it apart from ordinary market solutions. B-Line represents a thoughtful balance between affordability, durability and refined simplicity. It is a smart choice for those who seek economic value with Meranti's quality standard and design discipline.
